EXECUTIVE SESSION: None needed.

Councilwoman: Celeste Martin chose this time to address the council and audience. Celeste advised she had campaigned with the slogan "Focus on the Future". She further expressed her privilege to serve on the council and the opportunities it had provided to help the hospital remain open to the community, the establishment of the Downtown Development plan which was coming to fruition with the technology and online presence and opportunities to make payments and access the ordinances. These provide a focus on the future. I fully intended to run again until two other individuals stepped forward which will provide an opportunity for change and provide continued progress with a focus on the future.
