COMMITTEE REPORTS

FINANCE: Brad Rowe advised he had reviewed each department's budget and all are in line. I congratulate the street department on their ability to run like they do.

INFRASTRUCTURE: Gary Brock advised their reports were ready. They have had a large amount of trees and debris. Everett advised that the down trees and the large amounts of rain and water had caused some problems but they were able to take care of these items.

Gary advised the hospital had contacted him and he had instructed Everett to change the oil and rotate tires for the ambulances. They are also continuing to pickup the garbage at the hospital

INTERGOVERNMENTAL & TECHNOLOGY: Dolley Flood advised that DCA will be here September 11 at 8:30 along with the DDA and the regional commission and start introducing them to their duties as they are being reactivated.

PUBLIC SAFETY: Fred Welch advised the reports are available. Chief Etheridge advised that property crimes are down to practically zero. When the trees were down, we called Everett and in a matter of minutes he and his crew were there.

EXECUTIVE SESSION: Mayor Penland advised there was no need for an executive session.

There being no further business to come before the council, Mayor Penland adjourned the meeting at 6:15 p.m.
